

Training and testing sample characteristics comparison

a distance_stat: Kolmogorov-Smirnov statistics with testing the distance between the training data and the full data.

censoring_rate: the number of censored observations divided by the number of all observations in the training data.

* Samples without replacement highlighted using the green curve (labels connected)

b

* Samples with replacement highlighted using the red curve (labels connected)

c

