

a Prediction performances in train b Prediction performances in test c Prediction performances in external data

* Black line: sex as the control variable, where the number represents sampling proportion in female

* Orange line: censoring rate as the control variable, where the number represents the sampling proportion of censored observations